Summary

This report provides a chronology of recent events involving Pakistan and Pakistan-U.S. relations. Sources include, but are not limited to, major newswires, the U.S. Department of State, and Pakistani news outlets. For a substantive review, see CRS Issue Brief IB94041, Pakistan-U.S. Relations. This report will be updated regularly.

06/16/06 — H.R. 5631, making defense appropriations for FY2007, was introduced in the House. The bill would allow that up to $300 million in Pentagon funds be used to reimburse Pakistan and other key cooperating nations for their support of U.S. military operations. On the same day, the handcuffed body of Pakistani journalist Hayatullah Khan was found in a rural area of North Waziristan. Khan, who had been missing for more than six months, was abducted by unknown gunmen after he reported on an apparent 12/05 U.S.-launched missile attack in Pakistan’s tribal region. Also, Russian President Putin said that Gazprom was “ready to help” with a proposed gas pipeline that would deliver Iranian gas to India through Pakistan.

06/15/06 — An emergency supplemental appropriations bill became P.L. 109-234 (see 6/8 entry). On the same day, President Musharraf visited China for a Shanghai Cooperation Organization summit meeting, where he expressed a keen interest in securing Pakistani membership in the body. Also, four tribesman were killed by army troops in North Waziristan.

06/14/06 — Pakistani security forces backed by helicopter gunships attacked a suspected rebel camp in Baluchistan, reportedly killing five militants and capturing seven others. On the same day, the headless body of an alleged “U.S. spy” was found in North Waziristan.

06/13/06 — State Department Counterterrorism Coordinator Crumpton told a Senate panel that elements of Pakistan’s “local, tribal governments” are believed to be in collusion with the Taliban and Al Qaeda, but that the United States has no “compelling evidence” that Pakistan’s major intelligence agency is assisting militants. On the same day, a Pew Center opinion poll

Acronyms:
CBMs: Confidence-building measures
LOC: Line of Control (Kashmir) found 27% of Pakistanis holding a favorable opinion of the United States, up from 23% in 2005. The poll also found 52% of Pakistanis favoring Iran’s acquisition of nuclear weapons, the highest percentage of all 14 countries surveyed. Also, Multan police reportedly arrested six members of the Lashkar-e-Jhangvi terrorist group.

06/12/06 — In response to widespread confusion over the meaning of Pakistan-related statements in H.Rept. 109-486 (see 6/5 entry), the U.S. embassy in Islamabad issued a press release clarifying that the House-passed appropriations bill was not Pakistan-specific and that the Bush Administration remains committed to proposed aid levels for Pakistan. On the same day, a bomb exploded in Quetta, killing 5 people and wounding 17 others. Police suspect the banned Baluchistan Liberation Army of involvement.

06/11/06 — The leader of the Pakistan Muslim League said that President Musharraf would be re-elected by the current Parliament. On the same day, Pakistan’s Anti-Narcotics Force reported having destroyed a major heroin-producing facility near the Afghan border.
